Whoopee®

Bold, lively, IN, etc. a million and one terms to describe Whoopee, the flat screen stand in resin the consumers were waiting for and that was awarded by the Observer Design label.

Whoopee®

Whoopee an innovative vision of the flat screen TV stand

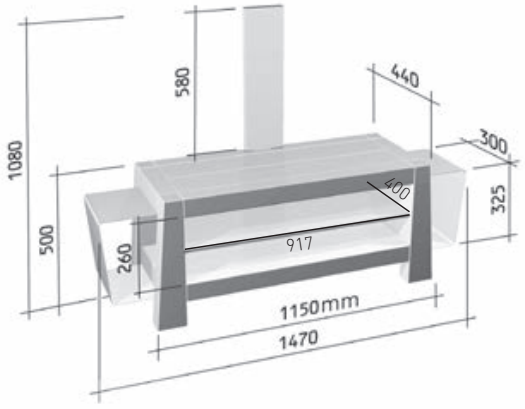

Thanks to consumer studies, ERARD identified new expectations for flat screen stands: products that are pratical, stylish and that blend seamlessly into the home. In an audiovisual furniture industry where form has become standardized (everything is a rectangle) and furniture is made from the same materials (steel and glass) in cold colours (black, grey, etc.) ERARD adds its own special touch.

I don't want to spend my entire Sunday assembling it

Simple easy assembly

No tools, no screws! 5 minute process.
What a performance for the Whoopee in its 2 shelves configuration!

What do I dream of? A stylish, colourful unit but with a price that is within reach

Colors

3 styles: one is cut out for you!
Emphasize your flat screen thanks to its modern yet a-temporal black design.
Get some fresh air at home thanks to its futuristic and immaculate white design.

Boost the decoration of your room with its vibrant red design

I am fed up with metal and glass furniture

An innovative material: Resin

A contemporary material combined with a unique design. Colourful, entertaining, practical with simple lines: design knocks at your door.

Mobility assistance system

Hidden wheels for the base/screen assembly, which is both attractive to look at and understated.

Design

In tandem with the C+B Lefebvre design agency, consisting in Catherine and Bruno Lefebvre, famous designers recognized for their creations using industrial technologies and materials in their design, ERARD is offering a flat screen television unit that combines seduction, technology, modularity and economy.
